Rules of the FSTA Fantasy Football League

1. Overview: The FSTA Fantasy Football League (FSTA) will consist of 14 teams/managers. The FSTA regular season will begin with Week 1 NFL games (including the Thursday game) and continue through Week 16 games.
2. There will be one division. Each team will play every team once in head-to-head competition. The playoffs start with week 14 and the championship game will be week 16.

2. Draft: Each team will draft 16 players. There will a pre-draft slotting at the event immediately prior to the draft start time. Teams will be seated at the draft in the order selected. Drafting will be 16 rounds, and each player will select a player when their turn comes. They will have 60 seconds to make a selection. After 60 seconds, they will be skipped, and returned to them after a selection is made, to make their selection. A moderator will manage the draft and their rulings are final.

3. Trading: NONE.

4. Roster Requirements: Maximum of 16 players at all times. There is no IR/DL. If you keep a player, he takes a roster spot.

5. Starting Lineup Requirements:

Starting lineups will consist of: 1 Quarterback, 2 Running Backs, 3 Wide Receivers, 1 Tight End, 1 Flex Player (RB, WR or TE), 1 Kicker, 1 Team Defense/Specials Team, (6 reserves)

(If no Week One lineup is submitted, the league commissioner will determine your starting lineup based on the order you drafted players. After Week One, if no starting lineup is submitted, your starting lineup will be that of the previous week.)

6. Scoring: Players can accumulate points in a number of ways:
